I came upon a child of God;
He was walking along the road
And I asked him, "Where are you going?"
This he told me:

"I'm going down to Yasgur's Farm,
Gonna join a rock and roll band.
I'm gonna camp out on the land
And try 'n' get my soul free."

We are stardust,
we are golden
And we got to get ourselves
back to the garden.

"Then can I walk beside you?
I have come here to lose the smog
And I feel to be a cog
in something turning.

Maybe it is just the time of year,
Or maybe it's the time of man.
I don't know who I am,
But life is for learning

We are stardust,
we are golden
And we got to get ourselves
back to the garden.

By the time we got to Woodstock
We were half a million strong
And ev'rywhere was song
and celebration.

And I dreamed I saw the bombers
Riding shotgun in the sky,
Turning into butterflies
above our nation.

We are stardust, billion year old carbon
Caught in the devil's bargain
And we got to get ourselves
back to the garden.

— Joni Mitchell

To speak impartially, the best men that I know are not serene, a world in themselves. For the most part, they dwell in forms, and flatter and study effect only more finely than the rest.

But for the evidence thence afforded to the philosophical doctrine of the identity of all minds, we should suppose some pre-established harmony, some foresight of souls that were to be, and some preparation of stores for their future wants, like the fact observed in insects, who lay up food before death for the young grub they shall never see.

1st OLD MAN. Down there we see her better
2nd OLD MAN. We had a very good view.
1st OLD MAN. But she can hear us better from up here. Come on. One, two, three!
BOTH. Long live Helen!
2nd OLD MAN. It's a little tiring at our age, to have to climb up and down these impossible steps all the time, according to whether we want to look at her or to cheer her.
1st OLD MAN. Would you like us to alternate? One day we will cheer her? Another day we will look at her?
2nd OLD MAN. You are mad. One day without looking at Helen, indeed! Goodness me, think what we've seen of her [illegible]! One, two, three!
BOTH. Long live Helen!
1st OLD MAN. And now down we go again!

Let the main object of this, our Didactic, be as follows: To seek and to find a method of instruction, by which teachers may teach less, but learners learn more· by which schools may be the scene of less noise, aversion, and useless labour, but of more leisure, enjoyment, and solid progress...
